DD's Discounts is coming to Cutler Bay Town Center. The off-price concept, which is owned by Ross Stores (Nasdaq: ROST), signed a lease to take 21,223 square feet at the 107,000-square-foot center at the corner of U.S. 1 and 112th Street in Cutler Bay.

DD's Discounts, which operates 88 stores in seven states, has been expanding nationwide. On Feb. 25, it opened seven new stores, including one in Jacksonville and another in Pensacola.

Cutler Bay Town Center is owned and managed by Fraga Properties, which also owns and manages properties in Miami, Doral and other parts of Florida.
